Bridge on Old Forge Road in Fairview Township, York County, to be Closed for Maintenance

Harrisburg, PA – The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) announced today that a bridge on Old Forge Road (Route 4020) in Fairview Township, York County, is scheduled to be closed this Wednesday, June 24, for maintenance work. The bridge spans Little Breeches Creek between Lisburn Road and Foxfire Lane at the York County/Cumberland County line. The closure is expected to last from four-to-six weeks.

Work includes milling, paving, rock placement, debris removal, and expansion dam replacement.

A detour will be in place using Lisburn Road (Route 2017), and Route 114, which includes Main Street in Lower Allen Township, Cumberland County, and Cedars Road and Lewisberry Road in Fairview Township, York County.

This work is part of a project to perform maintenance on bridges in multiple counties in PennDOT District 8's south central region. JD Eckman, Inc., of Atglen PA, is the prime contractor on this $6.4 million contract.

Work on this project will be in accordance with Centers for Disease Control and state Department of Health guidance as well as a project-specific COVID-19 safety plan, which will include protocols for social distancing, use of face coverings, personal and job-site cleaning protocols, management of entries to the jobsite, and relevant training.
